NATIONAL CHAMPS FETED HERE; NAME PLAYER OF YEAR

The Washington Post, American Legion, and Joe Adams, Centerville Ford dealer, co-sponsors of the Washington Township junior league baseball team, were hosts Wednesday evening to the members of the local club and the national championship team of the Bill Irwin Post of Oakland.

Thirty-five players of the two teams, their coaches and sponsors attended the dinner held at the International Kitchen. Arthur Gomes, commander of the local Legion post, served as toastmaster and the main speaker was Jimmy Hole, scout for the Oakland Oaks.

16,000 TEAM FIELD

Following the dinner the meeting adjourned to the Veterans Memorial building in Niles where the group enjoyed a showing of the newest baseball picture, "The Making of a Yankee."

The Oakland team, which plays in the same district division as the local team, won the national crown in Omaha, Nebraska, in September, triumphing in the 16,000 team race. The team is co-sponsored by Trader Scott Motor Company of Oakland and is coached by George Powles.

RAY BERRIOS HONORED

In the poll of local players for the outstanding performer of the year on the Washington club, Ray Berrios, Decoto, who held down the shortstop berth, won the coveted award. He received a gold baseball and will have his name engraved on the plaque which is kept at Washington Union High School.

The remainder of the evening was spent with individual members of the championship team relating their exciting experiences during their fight for the national crown.

The decorations, refreshments, and games were carried out in the Halloween motif.

Two new members were initiated, Evelyn Meyers and Laura Silva.

The group also discussed plans for the St. Joseph's bazaar to be held on November 18 and 19. They will have two booths, linen and pastry. The committee in charge will be Anne Rose, Beatrice Enos, Bertha Rose, May Bettencourt, Anne Perry, June Lewis, Gertrude Mozzetti, Nylah Connolly, Anne Tavattero and Mary Fontes.

NEWARK AWAITING SCHOOL COMPLETION

The new unit of the Newark Elementary School will not be ready for occupancy for at least another 30 days, it was reported this week by J. I. MacGregor, principal.

The building was expected to be completed and ready for classes by November 1, but MacGregor said yesterday that the heating unit is not yet installed.

Because of the overcrowded conditions in the old school building the kindergarten is meeting in the Youth Center building. Two other classes are convening in the school gymnasium.

JURY TRIAL OPENS IN CENTERVILLE; SEVEN DEFENDANTS

The jury trial of seven men, arrested in a gambling raid staged by sheriff's deputies on August 19 in Alvarado, got underway in Centerville Justice Court yesterday.

The defendants were arrested in the New Manila Club and charged with playing and operating a percentage game with dominoes. They entered pleas of not guilty and demanded a jury trial.

The defendants, free on $500 bond each, are Dalmacio Carrillo, Marty Yip, Benny Fong, Eugene Potencion, Ernest Sun, Timmy Yip and Frank Macahilas.

Six other men, arrested in a nearby club on the same night, were tried on an identical charge in Centerville early this month and were fined $300 each after a jury found them guilty. That trial took more than a week before it was concluded.

Deputy Sheriff Robert Moore has summoned 80 local residents as prospective jurors and attorneys were still attempting to qualify a panel of 12 jurors at noon yesterday.

SUGAR BEET CROP IS ABOVE AVERAGE

At the midway mark in the annual sugar beet processing run at the Holly Sugar Plant in Alvarado the prospects are for an "above average" year, according to M. A. Ratekin, superintendent.

Ratekin said yesterday that it is expected that the plant will process 200,000 tons of beets during the approximately 100 days of operation.

The local crop, which is now being harvested, is running "well above average" and is expected to reach 115,000 tons.

He reported that there has been no report of sugar beet crown borer damage here, such as has been noted in Yolo and Solano counties.

IT'S HALLOWE'EN

Hallowe'en—from each sepulcher
The spooks arise and walk,
Dead men and women laugh and leer
Where grim hobgobblins stalk,
Blear-eyed bats on laden wings
Flit athwart the dark'ning skies
While gibbering hosts of ghastly things
In ghost-like forms arise.
Then weird in tone and shrill in pitch
Resounds the Banshee's croon
While 'stride her broom the wicked witch
Rides up to hide the moon.

IRVINGTON HOST TO COUNTY GROUP

The Irvington Chamber of Commerce will be host on Wednesday evening, November 2, to the Alameda County Associated Chamber of Commerce.

The dinner meeting, which is to be held at Maple Rink, has been called for 6:30 p.m. and arrangements are being completed for the attendance of more than 70 representatives from the Chambers of Commerce of the county.

Serving on the arrangements committee are Harold Speetzen, Robert Zwissig, Edw. L. Rose and Allan Hirsch.

At Tuesday's luncheon meeting of the Chamber, Allan Hirsch appointed Vernon Leal, Gus Robertson and R. L. Pond to a committee to work out arrangements for the annual Christmas party which the Chamber gives for the children of the community.

NEW RESTAURANT TO OPEN IN NILES

A new restaurant is to be opened in Niles early next month in the building formerly occupied by the Niles Fountain at 425 First Street.

Owners of the new establishment are Wesley Dean and Louis Hunt of Castro Valley, owners and operators of the Cathay House restaurant at Castro Valley.

The new business will feature Chinese and American dinners and fresh sea foods and will specialize in a catering service for parties.

CAN YOU TOP IT?

If you want to know what it was that Manuel Bernardo was so proudly toting around the streets of Centerville last Saturday afternoon—it was a sugar beet.

It was no ordinary sugar beet, however, for it weighed 19 and a half pounds, and was grown by his son, Raymond, at his place on Driscoll Road.

Warren Gravestock, vice-principal of Washington Union High School and principal of the Washington Evening School, was the guest speaker at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Lion Club, outlining the proposals offered on Proposition 1, which will be submitted to the voters at the November 8 election.

"At no time in history has the need been so great for assistance to the schools of California," Gravestock told his audience. He outlined the Proposition, which would set aside $250,000,000 to be used as state loans to impoverished school districts to assist them in erecting badly needed classrooms.

Gravestock stated that every teacher in Washington Township had contributed to the fund to work for the passage of the bill, "not for their own gain but to help in improving overcrowded, impoverished districts."

A. E ROGERS FETED BY OIL COMPANY

35-YEAR-EMPLOYEE ONCE REPORTED DEAD

A Centerville man, reported killed during World War I, last Monday was honored by the Union Oil Company of Los Angeles marking his completion of 35 years of service with the company.

The very much alive man is A. E. "Tony" Rogers of 190 Central Avenue, who was flown to Los Angeles for the occasion, where he received a beautifully engraved gold watch commemorating the years of service.

A. E. ROGERS

MET PRESIDENT

His career with the company started in 1914 when the company purchased the property where their bulk plant now stands, from Mr. Rogers' father. The youngster got a job helping to build the plant and proved so industrious that he was kept on as an employee and given the job of delivering products with a horsedrawn wagon.

He was given a leave of absence from the company to serve two and one-half years in the army during World War I. During the war he was wounded in two deferent offensive drives and reports of his death reached the township, later followed by a report that he was alive but had lost a leg.

A letter from Rogers, along with a picture of him on crutches with both legs intact, was published in the February 15, 1919, issue of The Township Register, proving to his friends that the rumors were untrue.

The letter, written on December 27 in a hospital in Paris, France, told of the local boy meeting President and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, who visited the soldiers in the hospital.

Following his recuperation from the war injuries, Rogers returned to Centerville and the oil company. The horseless carriage soon replaced Rogers' team and they were relegated to a life of ease while their master extended his territory with his "gas buggy."

On June 1, 1927, he was united in marriage to Miss Geraldine Mello of Alvarado. The couple have one daughter, Winifred Rogers, now a student at San Jose State College.

The completion of 35 years of service with the same company does not mean for "Tony," however, that he is hanging up his working clothes to join the rocking chair brigade. He's still working at the same job, driving the same truck, covering the same territory as an employee of William Clark, local distributor for the company.

PROPOSITION ONE BACKED BY LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS

Civic and educational organizations of Washington Township have joined state-wide organizations throughout California to fight for the passage of Proposition 1 at the emergency election on November 8 to provide state aid for school construction in impoverished districts.

Proposition 1 asks for the approval of a $250,000,000 bond issue to provide loans on long terms to school districts which have reached the limit of their bonded indebtedness.

Various authorities nave estimated it will require 16,000 additional classrooms to permit California's children to attend full day sessions and have agreed that the only way of meeting this recognized need is by state aid in school construction with responsibility placed clearly on local districts to exert a maximum effort to repay the state.

"No finer use can be made of the state's money than to assure the education of its children," has become the slogan of the countless organizations backing passage of Proposition 1.

The California Medical Association, which has endorsed the passage of the proposition, released this statement this week: "The crowded condition of our schools today, which in itself is a threat to health, is the result of the tremendous population increase during and since the war. The need for thousands of new classrooms is undisputed and unless immediate steps are taken to alleviate it an entire generation will suffer."

10TH ANNIVERSARY FOR NILES CHURCH

"Russia: What About the Next World War?" will be the subject of Evangelist H. E. Wernicke, for 12 years a Baptist minister at Hamburg, Germany, at the Full Gospel Temple in Niles Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Sunday will mark the tenth anniversary of the Full Gospel Church in Niles and will be observed by a number of speakers, according to Pastors Gertrude H. and Fred C. Hahn.

The Rev. Mr. Sims of San Jose will speak at the 11 a.m. service. Bishop John L. Ingram will speak in the afternoon at 2:30.

Meetings will continue nightly at 7:30 o'clock for the next three weeks. The church is located at 131 J Street.

2 TEEN-AGE BOYS ADMIT BURGLARY

Two 12-year-old Niles boys were this week turned over to the county juvenile authorities after admitting to the Saturday night burglary of the Niles Dog Tank and stealing a bicycle from in front of the Niles Theater Sunday.

The two youths were picked up Monday by Deputy Sheriff Henry Vervais and under questioning admitted the thefts.

They told the officers that they broke into the Dog Tank and took some hotdogs, candy, cigarettes, pop and cigars, but found the cash drawer empty. The bicycle, which they took the following day, was recovered but the loot from the Dog Tank was consumed.

Fraud Trials in Third Week; Remaining Defendants Ask Change in Court Procedure

The 27 jury trials of Niles steel mill workers charged with fraud, continued to dwindle this week with defendants appearing in court to change their pleas and to request court trials instead of jury trials.

To date four of the 27 defendants represented by Edward R. Plotner, Oakland attorney, have been found guilty by juries and given county jail sentences ranging from 100 days to six months.

Four of the men charged with making false statements to receive unemployment pay while they were employed, have changed their pleas to guilty and received jail sentences ranging from 40 to 100 days.

Seven other defendants have appeared in court and indicated their desire to stand court trial before Judge Jacob Harder Jr., in preference to the jury trials which they originally requested.

CHANGE PLEAS

Eleven defendants pleaded guilty to the charges immediately upon their arrest last month and were given jail sentences of one day for each dollar fraudulently received.

Still scheduled are jury trials for 12 other defendants represented by Plotner and court appearances for others of the 45 charged who are represented by other counsel.

Last Thursday Rafael Guerra of Niles changed his plea to guilty and was given a jail sentence of 40 days.

The following day Saturino Lopez of Decoto also changed his plea to guilty and received a jail sentence of 100 days with a 10-day suspended sentence.

JURY NOT WANTED

Attorney Plotner appeared in court on Monday and cancelled the jury trial scheduled that day for Francisco Valdez of Decoto, asking that he be given a court trial on November 3.

Also cancelled in favor of a November 3 court trial were the jury trials set for Tuesday for Bonifacio Martinez of Niles and Hector Gonzales of Decoto.

Plotner also asked that the jury trial for Jesus Vera of Niles, originally set for October 31, be moved up to November 2 and he cancelled the October 26 jury session set for Francisco Martinez of Niles, although he did not indicate what further action would follow.

PAYMENTS DROP

Jury trials set for October 27 for William Angelsberg of Niles, November 2 for J. P. Inman of Hayward and November 4 for Jose Ojeda of Decoto, were also cancelled by Plotner.

He said these clients would appear in court November 3 to "change their pleas."

In the meantime, authorities at the Hayward office of the state employment service have reported that "local disbursements have decreased by 30 per cent" since the fraud arrests were brought to light.

DRIVER FREED OF MANSLAUGHTER

Leslie Summer, 29-year-old San Jose truck driver, was cleared of a manslaughter charge in Centerville Justice Court last Friday after Judge Allen G. Norris ruled that the state had failed to prove negligence on the part of the defendant.

Summers had been charged following the death of Alpha Brooks, Los Angeles, in a highway crash at Warm Springs on August 8. The state charged that Summers had swerved his semi-trailer truck three-lane highway as the Brooks car was attempting to pass, forcing it into the outside lane where it crashed head-on with an oncoming truck.

Mrs. Brooks was killed in the crash and her husband, Vaul Brooks, driver of the car, is still in a hospital unaware of his wife's death.

KIMBER POULTRY RANKS AT TOP IN EGG CONTEST

Announcement was made recently that poultry entered by the Kimber Poultry Breeding Farm of Niles had placed second in a "Random Sample Egg Laying Test" conducted at Pomona for the past twelve months.

This was the second such contest held. In the first test, completed earlier this year, the Kimber Farm took first place. Thus the locally bred birds rank in highest place of all California poultry. First place of the second test was also a flock of Kimber stock, bred by a commercial hatchery.

In the "random sample" test, instead of participants entering the most highly selected birds, entries consist of chicks taken at random from boxes to be shipped to customers by breeders and hatcheries. Since entries constitute a "random sample," they reflect the approximate quality of stock offered commercial poultrymen.

In the recent test at Pomona there were 20 flocks entered. Each flock numbers 100 birds. At the end of the first six months 40 pullets from each flock were selected at random and placed in laying houses.

At the end of the test the Kimberchiks had layed $434.53 worth of eggs, as compared with $256.25 for the entry placing lowest.

The state legislature has authorized the expenditure of $100,000 to expand the testing station at Modesto for conducting random sample tests. This type of testing will answer the question: "Just how good is the stock delivered to their customers by various breeders and hatcheries."

C. OF C. TO DINE AT SCHOOL CAFETERIA

The regular meeting of the Centerville Chamber of Commerce will be held next Wednesday at the cafeteria at Washington Union High School.

The invitation was extended the businessmen at the meeting this week by A. E. Alameda, member of the Board of Trustees of the school. The Chamber members will pay for their own lunches but will have an opportunity to observe how the nearly 700 students are served in little more than 30 minutes.

THE TRUTH ABOUT WHY SOME EAST BAY SAFEWAY STORES ARE PICKETED BY RETAIL CLERKS UNION

There is a dispute between Safeway and Retail Grocery Clerks' Unions Local 870 and 1179 over the renewal of a contract which expired September 18, 1949.

The leaders of these unions have attempted to hide the real issue in this dispute. They have hoped to gain support by promoting confusion on the real issue in the minds of our employees and the public.

The leaders of these locals are plainly out of order. To clarify this confusion, here are the simple facts:

1. Safeway has 77 Store Managers involved. Each man is a part of our management—fully responsible for the operation of his store and supervision of his employees.
2. The unions' leaders insist on representing our Store Managers as well as our clerks in collective bargaining. We have been advised that this demand is illegal.
3. Our Managers notified the unions and us in writing that they do not want the unions to bargain for their services.
4. Safeway agrees with its Managers that they should be independent of the clerks union. But, the union leaders still insist that Safeway accept the clerks' union as bargaining agent for our Managers. The unions' leaders are refusing to recognize the legal and human rights of these Managers to choose their own bargaining agent.
5. Safeway has at all times been ready to negotiate a contract with a bargaining agent representing our clerks. There is no wage dispute. We have offered to the unions involved the same wage increase, for clerks, just granted by other employers.
6. There is no need for a strike and there is no basis for the trumped-up charges by these leaders that Safeway is "union-busting." But, Safeway cannot and will not:
   a. Sign away the rights of its Managers against their written wishes; or
   b. Agree to an illegal contract.

PROUD PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kelly of 711 Fifth Street became proud parents of a son, Richard Gary, on Tuesday, October 11th, in Hayward. The baby tipped the scales at 6 lbs. and 7 ounces.

HOW MANY?

Probably some will wonder how many anniversaries Mrs. M. Muniz is celebrating this year as she had one in August. The congratulations last week were for her birthday instead of her anniversary.

AT THE GAME

Your reporter and husband went to the U.S.F. vs. St. Mary's game last Sunday to see St. Mary's defeated 41 to 14. That made us sad for we were rooting for the defeated team. Later we enjoyed a delicious dinner in San Mateo.

WEDDING BELLS

Many people from Decoto attended the ceremony Sunday when Mary Corchero became the bride of Steven Martin of Hayward. At the LIBRARY

By ELAINE HOWE

Fantastic creatures from Mars invading the earth, rockets to the moon and amazing mechanical men are no longer confined to the comic strips. Science-fiction is not something new and different—Jules Verne and H. G. Wells were writing imaginative stories of weird inventions long before most of us were born.

What is this science-fiction? You might guess it to be about scientists, their lives and exploits, say a fictionized biography of Marconi or Pasteur. Rather far from it—science fiction deals with the literature of prophecy, of speculation as to the possible applications of scientific invention to unprobed fields. When they tell me with a straight face that soon I can be downtown shopping, and if it starts to rain, I can press a supersonic button and the windows at home will close—by me, that's science fiction! Just such scientific developments lead the writers of science fiction into their high-paced, vividly colored, fantastic tales of the brave new world to come—if we dodge enough bombs to live that long.

Not so long ago the legitimate trade looked down their noses at this "pulp." This fall such publishers as Doubleday are devoting a section of their catalog to the new science fiction, along with the arts, biography, etc. Not to be bypassed by a new trend we have several collections of science fiction in the library.

These include "The Other Side of the Moon" edited by August Derleth, which includes twenty masterpieces of science fiction (the jacket says). "The Big Eye" is by Max Ehrlich. It's 1960. We're still battling among ourselves and they've just had the word that the earth is going to disintegrate in two years! Geoff Conklin has just edited two anthologies—"Best of Science Fiction" and "Treasury of Science Fiction." Stories are listed under these headings—Atom and After, Wonders of Earth, Superscience of Man, Dangerous Adventures, From Outer Space.

There are even some for younger science fiction addicts. Teenage books include 'The Angry Planet" by John Cross—a first hand account of a journey to Mars on the spaceship Albatross. Also there is Robert Heinlein with "Space Cadet" and "Rocket Ship Galileo."

The last 25 years have seen the greatest spurt in invention and applied science in history. It is no wonder then that the generation which grew up in that period should have an ingrained wonder as to what comes next.

THE YOUNGER SET

—Stinhilver Photo

One would never know by looking at the angelic expression of 14-months-old Connie Darlene Stewart that she has the proclivities of a pick-pocket.

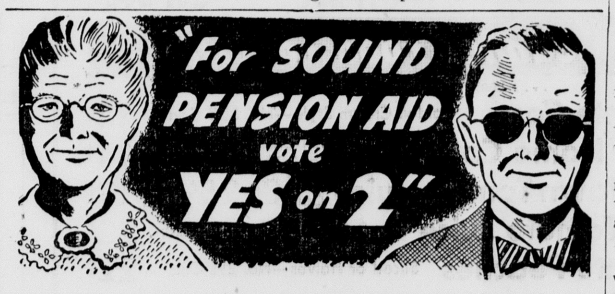
Yes indeed, she is quite adept at picking her daddy's pockets, taking everything from tobacco to pennies.

In addition to her interest in the contents of pockets, she is extremely interested in pots and pans, just as are most of her contemporaries. She is never happier than when she is surrounded by every pot and pan in her mother's cupboards.

Her most favorite person is her own brother, eight-year-old Donnie, whom she follows around with devoted constancy.

Darlene was walking at 11 months of age, and is like a little parrot when it comes to talking, repeating everything that is said in front of her.

Darlene's mother and daddy have lived in Niles for seven years, but both sets of her grandparents live out of the state. They are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stewart, who live in Arizona, and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Weathers, who live in Oklahoma.



The needy aged, the blind, the working public—desperately need PROTECTION from PENSION POLITICIANS! PROPOSITION 2 guarantees that protection!

Today, in the shadow of the Capitol dome in Sacramento, there's a pension government-within-a-government—a virtual dictatorship with $200,000,000 of public funds at its command! It operates beyond any effective control by the Legislature, the Governor, or the People!

END THE DICTATORSHIP!

The head of this "Huey Long" set-up, the State Director of Social Welfare, is a former officer of the pressure organization that promoted the McLain Pension Scheme—the fantastic, trickily-worded measure enacted last year by a narrow margin. The Director got the job because her name appeared in the act's fine-print!

In effect, the Director is judge and jury over the welfare of pensioners. Aid for the aged and blind is in a sorry state today!

RECEIVE $27,000 FOR POLIO FUND

Alameda County March of Dimes dollars contributed to the nation's polio war chest earlier this year were returned to Alameda County this week with receipt by the county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis of a check for $27,964 from the organization's headquarters in New York.

The amount was forwarded the local polio group in response to an appeal for additional funds made in mid-September.

At that time Fred C. Wells, treasurer of the Alameda County chapter, said that the organization's treasury was near exhaustion, and that $27,964 would be needed to care for the county's polio victims for 60 days.

Since the first of January, the Alameda County polio group has spent $84,604 to provide aid for 603 victims of the dead disease.

Thinking Things Over . . .

By VIVIAN BATMAN

THE WILD WEST

I was standing in my kitchen talking on the phone the other morning. The conversation was most intriguing—something about somebody who was seen going around with somebody. You know the kind of news — just the sort that you CAN'T put in the paper.

Suddenly I felt a tickling on my leg. I thought it was a fly and, as the conversation was becoming more and more engrossing, I just ignored the tickling.

Then I felt a slight sting.

I looked down to brush off the fly, and—of course you won't believe this—but a snake was coiled around my ankle!

I am no heroine. I screamed like mad, and dropped the phone, in the meantime shaking the snake off.

I stood transfixed, gazing at the snake who was hissing at me with all the hisses he had in him.

I was paralyzed. I was sure he was a rattler. "I'm going to die," I thought. "He's bitten me. What will become of my husband? What will become of my children?" Then I thought of the cake in the oven. "What will become of the cake?"

In the meantime my friend of the phone conversation, hearing my scream, was sure I was being murdered for something I had probably written in The Register, and phoned my husband at the office.

He walked into the house nonchalantly, grinning. "Somebody says you screamed."

"I did," I retorted, still standing glued to the floor.

"Ha!" he laughed. "What's the gag?"

I pointed to the snake, who was all coiled up with fangs darting venemously.

My husband, now imbued with the spirit of danger, yelled, 'Soak your foot. Do something." He went after the snake with the mop handle.

"What'll I do?" I cried. "In movies, somebody always has to suck the poison out of a snake bite. I'll probably die. I'm beginning to feel funny already."

My husband shot a quick glance at me, while he took jabs at the snake. "Don't be silly. You're not going to die. Maybe is ISN'T a rattlesnake."

This was small comfort.

Then my younger son came in. What're you yellin' for, Mom? It's just an old gopher snake."

"Are you sure?" I asked in a quavering voice.

"Nope, I'm not sure," he came back. "Maybe it IS a rattler. Gee, Mom," he yelled jubilantly, "imagine having a rattler right in your kitchen. Wait'll I tell the kids!"

They all left me—probably to die, I thought—while they took the snake out to show the neighbors.

It seemed like hours that my life hung in the balance. Was I, or wasn't I, going to die?

Then they came back and said the neighbors decided it was a gopher snake. I started to breathe again.

But now I'm "conditioned" as the psychiatrists say. I'm afraid to go near the phone.

My family says maybe it's a good thing.

LIFE BEGINS AT SEVENTY

They say life begins at forty. But I don't believe it. Life begins at seventy!

Last week we printed a poem by Mr. Lowe, in his mid-seventies. This week we've printed a poem (see front page) by Mr. Dusterberry, also on the "sunny" side of seventy. And there is Mr. George Barker, well into his eighties, who has contributed frequently to the editorial columns of The Register. All of them past the so-called prime of life, yet all of them just as eager and interested in life as men forty years their junior.

While many oldsters sit by the fire and let life flow on around them, these men are participants in life, and far happier, I am sure, than if they'd just given up, saying, "Why, I'm too old for that."

Let's congratulate them upon retaining their zest for living. It provides real encouragement to some of us younger people who look with trepidation to our seventies and eighties. Age, it would seem, isn't a matter of years, but a matter of spirit.

Now for goodness sakes, don't any of you oldsters start hopping fences or getting out your boxing gloves. There's a limit!

The table was beautifully decorated with a wishing-well silver centerpiece, enhanced by a tempting white bride's cake. The table appointments were all carried out in white and silver.

During the evening, cards and folk-dancing were enjoyed by the guests who, at midnight, sat down to a supper of sandwiches, cake and coffee.

Mrs. Gularte was presented with a set of silverware by her husband, and, in the wishing-well, the honored pair found $80 in silver. They also received a handsome silver creamer and sugar bowl from Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Perry, old friends.

For all these expressions of friendship the happy anniversary pair were extremely grateful.

PALO ALTO DOWNS IRVINGTON TEAM

"We were really outclassed," was the way that Manager Frank Mayer of the Irvington Merchants baseball team sums up his club's 10 to 2 defeat last Sunday at the hands of the team of the Base Hospital, Palo Alto.

Mayer said that the Palo Alto club was composed entirely of young baseball league hopefuls. The team is so well known and has such a roster of talent that two scouts, William H. Marshall of the Boston Braves and Bernie Viveiros of the Detroit Tigers, were in the stands.

The Irvington team will be idle this week-end due to the inability of Mayer to secure a game.

PUPPIES VICTORS IN 18-13 THRILLER

The Washington Puppies, lightweight football team, scored a thrilling last-minute win over the Fremont 30's on the home field Friday night by a margin of 18 to 13.

A 25-yard run by John Rivera midway in the second quarter was the only first-half score.

In the third period Fremont tied up the score but the local lads drove to another score to hold the lead of 12 to 6. In the final period Fremont scored again and made good the conversion to go ahead 13 to 12.

John Rivera scored on a pass play in the closing minutes to cinch the win for the locals.

Coach Irving Hird's boys played Los Gatos yesterday but the outcome of the game was not available as we went to press.

Woodrow Wilson instituted the first formal and regular White House press conferences.

HUSKIES DOWNED BY FREMONT 26-14; AT LOS GATOS TODAY

The Washington Huskies, defending champions of the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League, were pushed deeper in the cellar of league standings last Friday night when they were defeated by Fremont 26 to 14 on the home gridiron.

The forward wall of the Huskies melted away before the hard-charging Indians, forcing the locals to take to the air for any gains. The Indians, led by Johnny Mesa and Manuel Escalera, rolled up a 19-0 lead before Washington was able to organize any form of a drive. In the closing seconds of the second quarter the Huskies passed their way down to the Indian goal line and Elizarrey scampered over as the gun sounded, ending the first half.

Marching from midfield in the third quarter, Washington scored as Bob Saucetto tallied on a reverse play, cutting the margin to 19-14.

Washington's hopes were smashed, however, when Mesa took the following kickoff and returned it 90 yards to a touchdown and Escalera added the extra point.

Today the Huskies will journey to Los Gatos for a conference game with the Wildcats. Los Gatos, defeated in its first two S.C.V.A.L. games, shifted a 13-7 half-time score into a 45-7 victory over San Jose Tech on the Wildcat's home field last Friday.

MISSION SAN JOSE NEWS

By LOIS BOTTENBERG

BIG BIRD ARRIVES

That big old bird was around again and this time he left a little brother for David Campagna. Mommie dashed off to the San Jose Hospital on October 22 where John arrived. He weighed 8 pounds and 4 ounces and is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Campagna. She is the former Anna May Escobar.

TO HOSPITAL

Friends of William Lawrence were shocked to learn that on Sunday he suffered a severe heart attack and was rushed to the hospital where he is resting easily at present.

RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Henriques have returned from Susanville where Ernie was employed on a heavy construction job.

POSTMASTERS MEET

Last Wednesday evening at Pland's Villa in San Lorenzo, Miss Mary Janeiro of Decoto acted as host postmaster to the Alameda County Association of Postmasters at a very good dinner. The guest speaker, Mr. Nestor Kenny, postal inspector, was unable to attend at the last minute so the meeting became a round table discussion on legislative actions in Washington and many other things of interest to postmasters and some concerning the latest fashions which somehow crept into the conversation.

Those attending were: Manuel Lewis, Centerville; Genevieve Dutra, Alvarado, and son Cadet Robert of a military school in Menlo Park; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Graham of Oakland: Mr. and Mrs. George Perry of San Leandro; Gertrude Mooney of San Lorenzo and her husband and Mrs. Videl Mooney; Bill McKinnon of Livermore and his assistant, Mr. Murray and wife; Mr. and Mrs. Ford Samuels; Mrs. Bottenberg, Glenn Bottenberg, Clerk Florence Thompson and husband Larry, Clerk Rosalyn Garcia and friend, Donald Hayes, all of Mission.

Mrs. Julia Harris and Elmer, of Newark; Mr. and Mrs. Tony Foster, Hayward; Myrtle Jennings of Mount Eden (who all were pleased to see again as she is not with us very often); Mr. and Mrs. Edward Enos of Niles; the assistant postmaster of San Lorenzo; and our host, Mary Janeiro of Decoto.

The next meeting will be in November with Mrs. Bottenberg as hostess and the main order of business will be the election of officers for the year 1950.

SURPRISE!

I have written of many surprise parties, baby showers, birthday parties, etc., for many of the folks of the Mission and surrounding country, but somehow it seems funny to write one on me. But here goes anyway. The Larry Thompsons were supposed to come to the Bottenbergs on business and I, having finished dinner, thought I'd bake some cookies before they arrived. They were about half baked (the cookies, not the Thompsons) when they arrived. We had settled down to a friendly chat and then a knock came at the door. I (this sounds like an egotistical story) being closest to the door, opened it, and there stood many of my friends and neighbors calling "surprise."

They had popped in on the Bottenbergs for a house warming. (To tell the truth, I thought they were not going to give me one as we had moved into our new garage—oops—I mean house, in June, but boy, I am a hard one to catch at home what with Youth Center, grandchildren, Community Chest, etc., for they had made dates many times and always little old me was busy (or gone).

My two post office clerks, Flo and Roe, and my good old pal, Jo Chambers, were the hostesses. The lively evening was begun with a special concoction made by Ferne Overacker, served with popcorn and corn cheese twists; then several good games of bingo. Refreshments of cake and sandwiches and coffee were served.

Those invited were Grace Vieth, Jo Chambers, Flo Thompson, Roe Garcia, Beverly and Mamie Medeiros, Betty Andrade, Hortense Cunha, Margaret Phillips, Dot Koelsch, Rose Recends, Freida Frei, Ferne Overacker, Mary Rodrigues, Tomi Spaulding, Lena Solon, Molly Steele and Teddy Pereira. A beautiful card with all the guests signing it along with cash to buy some household article was presented to the very lucky Lois.

RECUPERATING

Mrs. Tomi Spaulding underwent surgery last week at the naval hospital. At this writing she is getting along just fine.

CLAM PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vieth and many others from this section went clamming on Sunday as it was, according to them, one of the best tides of the year.

VISITS MOTHER

Miss Edna Cross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cross of Durham Road, spent Saturday night with her grandmother, Mrs. Elsie Wilcox.

DOUBLE CELEBRATION

A double anniversary dinner was celebrated on Saturday evening with a motor trip to Brookdale Lodge in the Santa Cruz mountains. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Thompson, celebrating their ninth wedding anniversary, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bottenberg celebrating their third, accompanied by Rosalyn Garcia and Donald Hayes, spent a lovely evening there with dinner dancing and shuffleboard.

DINE OUT

Miss Regina Schneider, Teddy Pereira and Leo Dennie had a dinner engagement Monday evening in San Jose at O'Brien's.

HURT IN ACCIDENT

Mr. Thor Olsen is under the doctor's care with three broken ribs, dislocated shoulder and many cuts and bruises following a "going to sleep" at the wheel of his car and going over the embankment on the Mission San Jose highway near Durham Road last Friday. A car swerved to miss hitting him on the wrong side of the road, and clipping his rear fender. No one was held as it was considered an unavoidable accident.

Sapphires are found in the Australian states of New South Wales and Queensland.

ASSEMBLE GIFTS FOR WAR NEEDY

Under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society, the Newark Presbyterian Church will observe a World Community Day program Sunday at which the gifts of the church will be dedicated to the needy of Europe and Asia. A special dedicatory service will be held by the youth of the church during the Sunday School opening exercises to consecrate the gifts.

Sewing materials are to be sent to the ladies of war-torn countries and John M. Peffers, minister, has stated that anyone desiring to contribute may do so by contacting the Newark Church.

The Sunday morning sermon topic will emphasize the Biblical reason for missionary enterprise.

Sunday evening the young people will meet at 6:30 and the evening worship service will be at the Centerville Presbyterian Church. David Romedo, Filipino student for the ministry, will deliver the message. Romedo was a colonel in the underground resistance force of the Philippines during the war.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS TO MEET AT GRIMMER HOME

The members of the Catholic Daughters of America, Mission San Jose Court No. 1508, will meet Thursday, November 3, at the home of Mrs. E. M. Grimmer in Irvington at 1 p.m. to begin work on their project of making cancer pads to be sent to the Sacred Heart Home in Philadelphia.

Mrs. John Cattaneo, Niles, has urged all members to be present to assist in the organization's project.

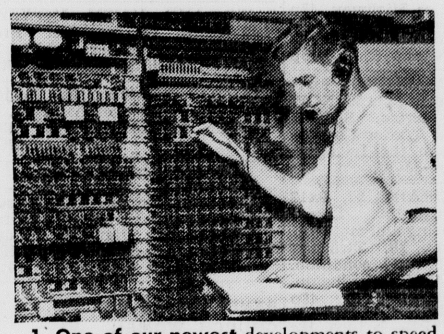
Many Long Distance operators ring telephones in a number of cities across country...much as you dial a call.

SHE "PUSH-BUTTONS" CALLS COAST-TO-COAST
New system can put through calls in 30 seconds



1. One of our newest developments to speed your Long Distance calls is this push-button equipment. So complex it's almost a mechanical brain, it's a key to a system which permits an operator to call straight to telephones in other cities . . . practically as fast as dialing across town. Push-button or dial equipment now is used for three out of four calls between cities.

2. Quicker call completions are one big advantage of the push-button system. If you know the number—instead of just the name and address—we can ring the telephone you are calling in an average of about thirty seconds after you lift the receiver. That's three times as fast as we can serve you if you don't know the number. So it's a good idea to keep a list of those you call often.

3. Perhaps your next Long Distance call may be handled this way. For the new plan is part of our program to improve all service to make it more valuable to you . . . and it's a bargain today. A daytime station call to any point on the East Coast is only $2.50 plus tax . . . the lowest rate ever.

Your telephone is one of today's best bargains

HINTS FOR HOMEMAKERS

MOTH AND INSECT PREVENTION

by the HOMEMAKING SPECIALISTS of the General Electric Consumers Institute

Now—at the peak of the moth season—is a good time to apply that old saw "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." Most moth damage occurs in spring and summer because of open windows and doors, permitting moth infestation from other homes and nearby woods.

Moths that fly around, however, are not harmful to fabrics. It is the larva or worm stage that produces enormous damage.

So beware! Wool and silk fabrics, feathers and all animal fibers are subject to moth damage. Moth eggs are laid where an abundance of food is available and where there is a warm, even temperature and very little, if any, light.

If certain moth preventive measures are taken before winter garments are put away and during spring housecleaning, there will be less chance of having any moth larvae. Year-round care of fabrics, however, is strongly recommended.

All woolen fabrics should be brushed vigorously at frequent intervals. Particular attention should be given to folds, creases and pockets not exposed to light. Frequent exposure of such fabrics to air and light will be very disturbing to moth egg hatching and laying of additional eggs in the fabric.

Slip-covers should be thoroughly brushed and exposed to air and light. Storage of fabrics, subject to moth attack, should be in tight containers; and such fabrics should be thoroughly aired and brushed before packing.

If your vacuum cleaner has a glass jar attachment with spray, it can be used to aid in the prevention of moths by spraying moth crystals or liquids in hard-to-get-at places.

While you're taking steps to prevent moth infiltration, you might also consider insects.

Cleanliness and insects don't go together, so if your home is really clean, you will have eliminated one of the chief causes for insects. Don't allow food waste to stand in the sink or uncovered in garbage pails, and don't leave soiled dishes in the sink.

Since dampness also attracts insects, all rags, sponges and brushes should be thoroughly dried before putting them away and scrub water should be thrown out just as soon as the job is finished. A portable dehydrator or chloride of lime, which absorbs moisture from the air, can be used in rooms or basements that are too damp.

Be sure that you fill up all holes, cracks and runways so that mice and other pests can't get in; use paint over cracks in woodwork; and pay particular attention to plumbing—fill up cracks around pipe joints and around the floor with putty or patching plaster.

And if, in spite of all your precautions, you do have pests around, remember that there is no substitute for a good insecticide. Drug counters, grocery and hardware stores carry a choice of insecticides which do a good job of getting rid of insects, but be sure to follow directions to the letter. Pennyroyal, citronella and kerosene help to chase mosquitos and flies, and camphor and borax can be used where there are roaches, silverfish and ants.

It's best to use non-poisonous powders and liquids in homes where there are children. Dry powders should be streaked along the back edges of shelves, under shelf paper, or blown into cracks and crevices with small blowers. Liquids should be sprayed. For this you can also use the power sprayer attachment of your vacuum cleaner.

Of course, you should protect open doors and windows with screens, and if you have a fireplace, cover the opening with a fine mesh screen during the warm months.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT FARM LABOR INFORMATION

By L. R. BRADLEY
Manager Hayward Office

The number working on California farms is continuing to rise as the cotton harvest progresses. It appears likely that the September peak in agricultural employment will be surpassed in October even though most activities are now decreasing in all sections of the state except the cotton areas.

Migration of workers to the San Joaquin Valley has been heavy, which has decreased the labor supply available to complete the harvests in other areas. It is probable, however, that sufficient workers will remain in these areas to prevent losses in such crops as oranges and tomatoes. The prune harvest is now complete.
